

Liam Hogan

ayesc@ayesc.ca
+1 (905)-243-9605
Whitby, ON, CA

Profile

Senior year high school student at Brooklin High School, with a focus on computer systems and engineering. Currently learning advanced fundamentals of computer systems and programming, while working on software projects and maintaining small servers as a hobby.

Competencies

Languages	C#, Java, JavaScript
Frameworks	.NET, Node.js, Docker
Databases	MySQL, SQLite, LiteDB
Services	Google Cloud, Cloudflare, GitHub
Software	Git, Visual Studio, DBeaver, ESXi, VMWare

Education

Durham College

Diploma in Computer Systems Technology
Begins 2023

Brooklin High School

High School Diploma
2019 – Present

- Attained an understanding of computer programming and engineering fundamentals
 - Designed and built functioning electronic devices with Arduinos
 - Successfully demonstrated knowledge of computer hardware and repairs
-

Experience

Brooklin High School

Audio/visual technician
2019 - Present

Operate audio and visual equipment for live events and shows and use computers to display and play graphics and sound.

- Gained experience solving issues both independently and in a team
 - Improved planning and management of schedules
 - Found the best compromise in situations where the requested outcome could not be accomplished
-

Brooklin Village Public School

Volunteer computer technician

2016 - 2019

Provided IT services to the public school by performing basic monthly maintenance on their student laptops.

- Gained familiarization with real-world network systems
- Hands-on work with dozens of machines
- Worked with deployment tools to image systems

Interests

Games	Playing both single player and multiplayer games from a wide range of genres
Automotive	Working on and fixing cars, and learning more about how they work
Programming	Writing code as a hobby and learning how to use new frameworks and tools.

Last updated: 12/19/2022